FROM THE EDITOR

Prior editorials have been dedicated to honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the community and to apprising you of changes in the political and legal climate which threaten your fundamental freedoms, including the freedom to receive and read this magazine. Because I recently experienced the wrath of our government, the last thing I wish to do is focus on government oppression, so I shall use this page to talk about someting near and dear to all of us: piss.

I will fondly remember 1996 as the year of the resurgence of piss activity. Bathtubs are finding their way back into sex clubs at unprecedented rates. Sex educators are daring to broach the subject. Safer sex literature now contains information about both internal and external watersports (important because it is an acknowledgement by the establishment that these activities exist). The mainstream press contains piss articles written from sociological and medical perspectives as well as curiosity pieces.

At the same time, I will bemoan 1996 as the year that our watersports videos and magazines all but disappeared from the scene because the new federal laws have made distribution of these materials a felony. Because of our passionate love of watersports, our belief in self expression, and in honor of our first amendment right to free speech, Water Boys remains a lone tree in a previously lush forest.

Because people always find a way to express that which they love, the internet (which, for the moment, cannot be censored, thanks to a recent Supreme Court decision) is literally abuzz with piss activity. As a consequence, graphic pictures and text are being freely exchanged between consenting adults. New piss and other fetish websites are springing up daily. One of our members has a piss website which is a mandatory destination if you have internet access: http://www.mindport.net/~ctpaul34/gws/ gwsindex1.html. In conjunction with this website, there is a (free of charge) piss list which, like all internet lists, enables subscribers to receive and post messages from and to piss lovers around the world. Another website worth visiting is http://www2.best.com/~bootjac/bootjaq/mensroom/piss.html. There is a 7-day, 24-hour internet relay chat room devoted to gay piss. Water Boys hosts a Sunday piss forum on America Online at 6 PM Pacific Std Time in Private Room PIGPEN69; "overflow" goes into Private Room PIGPEN70. We are also currently creating our own website. Details will follow in Water Boys #6.

In the spirit of our mutual love of piss and this editorial, I invite you to kick back and enjoy this magazine: no fillers, no vanilla sex, no compromise...just pure, old-fashioned, raunchy piss sex...and lots of it. Peruse the personals, call or write other members, jack off to the stories, put our social events on your calendar and plan to attend a few. Bon appetit!

IF YOU WANNA DRINK FROM THIS TAP, BOY, YOU'D BETTER WEAR YER WATER BOYS T-SHIRT AND HAVE YER WATER BOYS MUG HANDY SO YOU DON'T SPILL ONE PRECIOUS FUCKIN' DROP!!!

MEMBER DRIBBLE

VITAL INFORMATION FOR MEMBERS

You will notice some changes to the Water Boys magazine. There are now more members, so the personals section has been expanded. In fact, we now have the largest personals section of any fetish publication. In response to member feedback, we have included more stories and pictures and have eliminated letters to the editor and whoroscopes for this edition. Take a good hard look at your club magazine: no filler, no endless pages of phone line and lube ads...just lots of meat and yellow gravy!

Copies of past editions of Water Boys magazine are now available for $8.95 each plus $2.95 postage and handling for the first magazine and $2.00 for each subsequent one purchased on the same order. Send an informal request if you are a member.

We have been remiss in getting the magazine out on a strict schedule. Your membership is good for 4 issues, not for a determinate period of time. We send out a renewal notice concurrent with the last edition you are scheduled to receive. When you renew, we do not send out a verification or a new membership card. Not to worry...you will receive future editions and will be granted appropriate discounts at our events (We keep a roster handy). Water Boys is literally a one man show (with a LOT of help from friends and members), and we devote our time to publication of the magazine, expansion of social opportunities for our members, and providing essential services in a timely fashion. Membership applications are processed the day they are received and mail sent for forwarding is forwarded the day it is received. Unnecessary paperwork is simply not generated.

We are still actively looking for space in San Diego, San Francisco, New York and Los Angeles where we can hold piss parties. Ideally, the space should be at least 1,000 square feet, industrial in nature (e.g., concrete floors, good drainage), heated, and not in an area where it would attract unwanted attention. If you are aware of appropriate space, please call us at (619) 589-6050.

We are always looking for good, hot piss stories from members. These are the lifeblood of our publication. If you have sent one in, odds are it's going to be printed. If you haven't, then what are you waiting for? The other members are itching to hear about your sordid exploits.

The Sunday Piss Forum on America Online is flowing stronger than ever (Oh yeah, man!). To participate, go to private chat room PIGPEN69 at 6 P.M. Pacific Standard Time and get down 'n dirty. All you netoholics, be sure to check out http://www.mindport.net/~ctpaul34/gws/gwsindex1.html.

Please come say hi to all of us Water Boys at our booth at Folsom Street Fair. Now just sit back and enjoy edition #5, and pay special attention to Splash Alan's article on how to make a piss mummy. Being the penultimate innovative fetishist, Splash created the world's first piss mummy. I was there and let me tell you, it was HOT.

'Til next edition, stay wet!

Love and pisses,

Rainer

FIRST TIME

By Member #669

Bill and I had been friends since High School, and now that we just finished college, we had moved to our own places. One day he invited me to visit. I had some idea by now I was gay, but no idea that Bill would even have THOUGHT about it. When I got to his apartment he was lying on the sofa covered with a blanket, and he called to me "come in." I came in and sat down. He was watching TV and looking as sexy as always, even hidden under the blanket.

"Want a beer?" he asked. I said, "Sure," and he directed me to the fridge and asked me to toss him one as well. When I came back, we both sat watching some action movie for a while, and I was about half done with my beer when I noticed he had finished his, and had two empty bottles on the floor. He said, "Hurry up slow poke, finish that beer!" to which I quickly followed his order, in a somewhat surprised eroticism. He sat up and asked if I wanted another, and I said sure, and when he got up and tossed aside the blanket, he had a small wet spot on his faded blue-jeans that he wore SO well. He had on a tight T-shirt, that showed all the fine muscles of his chest, tucked tightly into his jeans.

He picked up the empty bottles and disappeared into the kitchen. He returned with two bottles and much to my amazement, had removed his T-shirt. I didn't know what to say or do, so I just glanced in awe, then looked away. Just before he sat down, he laid the blanket doubled in half along the sofa, then handed me my beer.

When I grabbed the bottle, I noticed that it wasn't cold at all. As a matter of fact, it was actually kinda warm. I joked and said, "Refrigerator on the blink?" and he said "Shut up and drink your beer." I took a swig. This was NO beer at all, it was his HOT piss! After making this realization, I began to get hard immediately, and chugged his hot piss all down to the last drop! He watched me the whole time, and then undid his fly.

"Take off your shirt," he said, "and lay that blanket on the floor here in front of me." I obliged, quickly, as my cock started pulsing in my jeans. "Piss in your jeans," he said, and I knew at this point I was in HEAVEN! I let loose with some piss, standing in front of him on the blanket. It moistened my boxers, and 501s, then trickled down to my socks.

"STOP!" he ordered, and then he reached up and undid my pants, pulling out my cock. "Wet me down," he commanded, and I started to piss that hot yellow stream onto his tightly toned chest, and watched as it trickled down into his jeans and the blanket he sat on. He then took my pissing cock into his mouth, and was drinking it down, making me hard as a rock, till I had to stop pissing!

He worked on my cock for a while, and as he did, he pulled out his own cock, and began to piss. Most of the piss hit my leg, and wet my previously white socks, trickling down into my high tops. The rest trickled down his own leg, and soaked the blanket beneath him. He stopped and commanded me to my knees.

Could he have more piss? I hoped with eager desperation. He scooted up to the edge of the sofa, and started to piss again! All over my head, soaking my hair and my chest, and then into my waiting mouth!!! I swallowed what seemed like buckets of his hot flowing strong piss, until his erection was so huge, the flow turned into streams and shots of hot cum, which I quickly swallowed.

Covered in piss, we both stayed this way for a minute or so, enjoying the last bits of erotic heat passed between us. He then lay down in his pissy blanket, and sprayed what little piss he had left up onto his chest. My bladder was pounding at this point with the recycled piss and beer from the incredible evening, and Bill just said, "Let loose with your hot piss wherever you want, just don't you

Boot And Piss Boy

BY R. M.

You cannot imagine the feelings this boy has every time he hears Your manly voice on the phone SIR! First, a smile immediately appears on his face. And then, as he listens to Your messages, a peaceful spirit overcomes him - followed by a wild rush of longing SIR. The last time i listened to Your sexy voice, i was at the Green Lantern - and found myself straining to hear the gentle cadence of Your voice while rubbing my nipples SIR - imagining the feel of Your strong hands working over my perky nubs SIR. Of course, SIR, this buttboy can't think of Your hands without automatically focusing on his butt, SIR. To be in Your Presence is one blessing this boy longs for, but to feel Your hand deep inside me, and Your Power taking me, SIR - that is what he dreams of SIR - waiting for the day that he will be in the palm of Your loving hands SIR.

To be honest SIR, the boy was stoned - and totally wired not so much by the pot, but by the thoughts that flashed through his head as he listened to Your message three times! Of course, some men were watching me from a distance - and really smiled when they saw me rubbing my butt against the brick wall and pulling tightly on my right nipple. The boy finally closed his eyes, and focused on Your voice.....

"Get on Your knees, boy!" i fell to my knees, my hands clenched behind my back and my face just inches from Your crotch SIR. At first, i looked straight ahead at the black leather and stared at that incredible bulge - my mouth watering as i licked my lips - but i didn't dare touch Your manliness SIR, but bowed my head to look down.....only to smile SIR....bending the whole way over, my butt in the air - to press my lips on Your boots SIR.

i whimpered "Thank You, SIR", but i don't think You heard me over the loud music - nor realized that i was purring deep in my throat as i kissed Your boots over and over again SIR. All of a sudden, i felt Your hand kneading my butt - Your long fingers sliding behind the leather chaps and caressing the tight denim jeans. This boy was really purring then, SIR.....

Then i felt the sole of Your boot pressing against by neck, kicking the red beret off and exposing my shaved head. The sensation of Your boot caressing my head - and Your hand massaging my butt - sent shivers all through me - as i licked first the tip and then the sides of Your boot SIR.

The tip of Your boot moves from my head and You pull back Your other boot.....the boy feels lost wondering where the Master has gone. i kneel there perfectly still and wait for what seems like hours! i hear some men walking by making comments...."Hey, look at the pussy boy!.....He looks real pretty down there - like he belongs there.....Yeah, he needs to spend more time down there....maybe it'll teach him some humility." i turned a beet red - and turned even redder fighting the urge to look up at the smart asses....frightened to think what must be going through the Master's mind.....

"Get up, My pussy boy". This boy jumped to his feet, and stood at attention - beaming with joy to hear the Master use the possessive case. "So is it true that You need to learn some humility, boy?" I barely responded, "SIR, Yes SIR!" when You clutched my hands behind my back, pressed my head down, and pushed me up the narrow stairway.

Everyone made way for us and stood by watching as we climbed the steps. i could feel the heat of Your breath on the back of my neck as i wondered what was in store for me....

You gently guide me right up to the bar and nod Your head down. i fall to my knees, spread my legs and wait, amazed that the men standing by made room.....i heard You talking to the bartender - the one who always wears a black hanky in His left pocket - and smile, thankful that i always address Him as "SIR". i strain to hear You ask the bartender "So is it true that My boy needs to learn some humility?" "Fuck, i think to myself....why didn't i ever accept His advances and amuse Him just a little...." i'm amazed to hear Him say, "Every boy can always learn some more humility, but in Your boy's case, he just needs to have some rough edges smoothed out a bit, if You know what I mean...." His voice trails off leaving me to wonder what else They could be talking about.....

My knees are getting sore as i wait, and wait, just looking at Your boots and wondering what's up - perspiration starting to drip from pits. Then i see Your empty beer bottle, with some sweat dripping down the sides and lick my lips....You are holding it right against Your full crotch....

You look down at me and smile to say "Thirsty, boy?" "SIR, yes SIR!" "Good boy, just wait a little longer boy, and I'll feed You some tasty brew....in the meantime boy, starting licking boots, boy!" i loudly declare "SIR, YES SIR", bend over to lick Your left boot...only to feel Your right boot push me away.... "I didn't say My boots boy, sounds like You don't deserve them boy....but You can lick the bartender's boots, boy!

At first, i looked straight ahead at the black leather and stared at that incredible bulge - my mouth watering as i licked my lips - but i didn't dare touch...

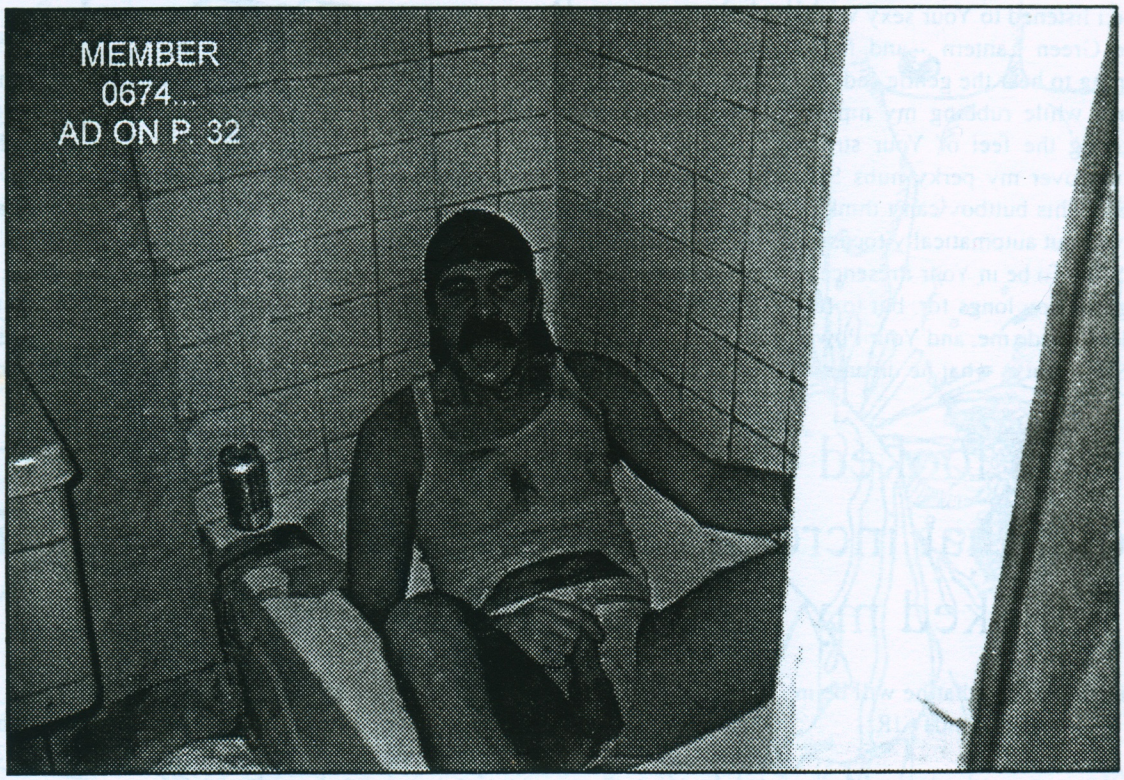
Crestfallen, i crawl over to kneel before the bartender underneath the serving area and gaze up at the bartender. He pulls out his black hanky, wipes his brow, and grins - presenting his right foot. i bend over and begin licking and licking when i feel him grab me by the nape of my neck and drag me into the center of the service area. "Just wanted everybody to see you doing what you do best, boy". i continue working on his boots until my mouth aches and my tongue feels raw. He swiftly kicks me in the chest and forces me smack onto the floor.



"Enough on the boots, boy." His left foot planted firmly on my chest, he stares me in the eye and starts....."Remember all the piss you had those boys splashing against my bar last Saturday night boy...well, I didn't appreciate the mess you left behind when the lights came up, boy." i didn't know what to say and was frightened to think of what he had in mind....i mean, here i was splayed on my back right in the center of the bar, all the men were staring at me....even the other bartenders stopped serving and watched the sadistic bartender continue.....He was rubbing his crotch and i could see His cock growing in his tight jeans...."So lets see just how good a toilet boy you are".....He undoes his belt buckle, rips open the button fly and pulls out his cock.....i'm amazed at how much meat He is packing, fuck, it must have been folded in threes....He slowly pulls on it until it is at full length but not quite hard as He presses his boot against my Adam's apple....

"Now, open your mouth boy.....I don't expect you to lose one drop, hear me, boy?" "SIR, Yes, SIR" slipped from my lips as a hot stream of piss landed right in my open mouth.....i guzzled and guzzled the strong brew down my throat making sure not a drop was lost...until the stream suddenly increased.....i knew i couldn't keep up with it...gulp after gulp until it got to be too much...piss flowed from my mouth, down my fu manchu and trickled onto the floor...i could feel it running under my shoulder....fuck, this man is a horse.....

Wham.....i feel the bartender's boot smack my chest..."What's wrong, toilet boy? Too much for ya, eh boy?" A gurgling "SIR, no SIR" escaped my lips as i felt the stream of piss cover my face, and then my chest and finally down to my crotch.....Gazing up i see the two other bartenders fondling their hard cocks in their jeans, wondering if they too were gonna use this toilet boy....But the stream of piss ends and i hear the bartender laughingly say, "You're a fucking mess, boy! Get on your hands and knees and crawl the fuck outa here, you hear me, toilet boy?" i roll over shouting "SIR, yes SIR" and raise myself up on my hands and legs - my face redder than my piss covered beret - and crawl back to the service entry and position myself right before Your boots SIR.

Your hand slaps the dripping beret off my head, and You pat me on the head gently whispering over and over again, "Good boy". Of course, SIR, this boy had a broad smile on his piss covered face - and i start to lick the piss off my fu manchu staring at Your crotch SIR - wishing it was Your piss that i was tasting SIR.

You pull me up off my feet with Your strong right hand and gaze into my eyes, and flash an evil smile as You pull a cigar out of Your pocket.... You bite off the end of the cigar and spit it into my face as i dig into my pockets looking for a lighter i light Your cigar dreading what i see in Your eyes SIR as You stare at my hairy chest and dig Your finger into my belly-button.... Your other hand takes the cigar from Your lips - all i can see is Your smile through the wafts of smoke - as You nod Your head up and down.... i know what to expect as the cigar ashes are flicked onto my chest.....What a sight SIR.....piss-soaked chest hair covered with cigar ash....

And then i feel it - the cigar singes the hair on my left nipple - the acrid odor fills my nostrils as i huff like a bull - breathing deeply waiting for the moment You mark Your boy. Uhhhhhhhhhhh - the heat burns my nipple.....and i close my eyes....again, my nipple connects with Your fire.....i begin to groan deep inside my chest.....more contact with Your heat.... "Take me SIR" slips from my clenched lips as i open my eyes to watch You take a long drag off the cigar, take me by the back, pressing Your lips against mine and giving me Your smoke SIR. i suck deeply on Your breath and force my chest out waiting for contact again with Your burning fire SIR.....

Your boy begins a long guttural moan, his eyes rolling into the back of his head as Your fire takes my flesh.....i lick my lips just longing to be totally taken by You SIR....electricity shoots through my convulsing chest and zaps my butthole - jolt after jolt pierces my pulsing rosebud as i tighten my butt just thinking of Your cock exploding deep inside me....

A leash is attached to the collar ring. The boy is where he belongs. he can't help but throw his arms around Your muscular legs and cry tears of joy as he feels Your hand patting the top of his head and hears You calmly whispering "It's OK, boy".... Tears stream down my face as i feel the leash tugged and see You make an about face and turn to the bartender. "My boy has something to say to You." The leash tugs again and i kiss the bartender's boot, lift my head and shout, "Thank You SIR. The boy will never have a piss scene at Your bar again, SIR, and he is very sorry SIR...Unless SIR, You need a toilet boy, SIR!" The bartender laughs, winks and simply says, "Good boy."

Another tug on the leash, i swing around and follow You down the narrow stairwell, my hands behind my back and my chest out showing the beautiful marks my Master left on me....i watch You nod Your head at passersby who stop and stare as You swagger to the front door with Your boy. As we approach Your motorcycle, i can't help but anticipate the feeling of clutching You tightly as i feel the power of Your hog reverberating between my thighs, shooting shivers of longing up my pulsating rosebud....

You stop at Your bike and glare at me...."Lean over the seat, boy and think about the kiss of Your Master's whip". I clutch the bike's muffler and hold my tightly clenched butt up just waiting for the kiss of Your whip....A hiss in the air and bam, the cat lands on my right check....another hiss, a stronger blow, and fire emanates from my butt....another kiss, and another, i breathe harder, another hiss of the whip and a deep groan rattles from my chest as i feel Your power strike me....a slow methodical pace....hiss after hiss of Your whip....i can't help but feel the delightful sting of Your kiss cover my sweaty body....You have me on fire burning for You....my ass keeps swinging from side to side desperately seeking contact with Your whip....longing to feel Your kiss....waiting for You to pour Yourself into me.....

i feel the sweat drip off each of Your nipples as You bend over me and rub Your hands over my glistening back...."Good boy, you want me deep inside you boy, don't you, boy?" "Please SIR, fill me SIR, take what is Yours, SIR" A wad of spit lands on my welted ass....Your hands rub it in, first gently and then roughly as You spread my cheeks and poke Your finger at my butthole....Your hand smacks my blooming rosebud, the other one squeezing my nipple as You tell me...."your collar is only a sign that You are mine boy....but my fist deep inside you will be the real act of possession boy....you will be in the palm of My hand boy....And once You feel me at the center of your being, your pussy ass will follow me everywhere and anywhere, just longing to be filled with Me once again boy....."

You kiss each of my butt checks, smack my ass and pull me up off the leather seat....You straddle the bike in one swift motion, pat the back seat and wink, tossing Your head as to say...."Jump on and ride, bitchboy." i jump on, press tightly against Your hard body as You rev up the engine...my hands are clutching Your crotch as we peel out of the driveway...lifting my head, i turn and wave to all the boys who watched my Master kiss me with His whip....smiling from ear to ear, we coast down the street, my rosebud moist with anticipation of Your fist, waiting to be filled by my Master, longing to finally be in the palm of Your loving hands...

"SIR, Yes SIR" is all i can muster as i nurse on Your left nipple trying to suck Your power right out of You SIR.

i open my eyes and find myself being held tightly against You, my head resting on Your chest - my rosebud pulsing in sync with Your rapidly beating heart - as i hear You say "I will take You tonight boy, and You will never be the same....Understand me, boy?" "SIR, Yes SIR" is all i can muster as i nurse on Your left nipple trying to suck Your power right out of You SIR. A deep peacefulness overcomes me as i suck, feeling Your mancock pressing against me trying to escape its leather furnace. Finally, You grab me by the neck and force me to my knees. my glazed eyes are fixed on the head of Your cock outlined on the shining leather....i stick my tongue out and aim for it, wanting to rub my tongue over the crown of Your cock and feel Your powerful shaft grow and grow....All of a sudden a leather collar lands right on top of Your crotch....With a big smile on my face i kiss it over and over again and keep kissing as You remove the collar and place it tightly around my neck. i can feel the veins in my neck bulging as i relish the joy of my Master's possession. The kisses turn into nibbles on Your cock, spit covers the leather and some of it runs down Your leg, as i growl "Thank You SIR!" over and over again....

WET NIGHT

BY GUY ANTHONY

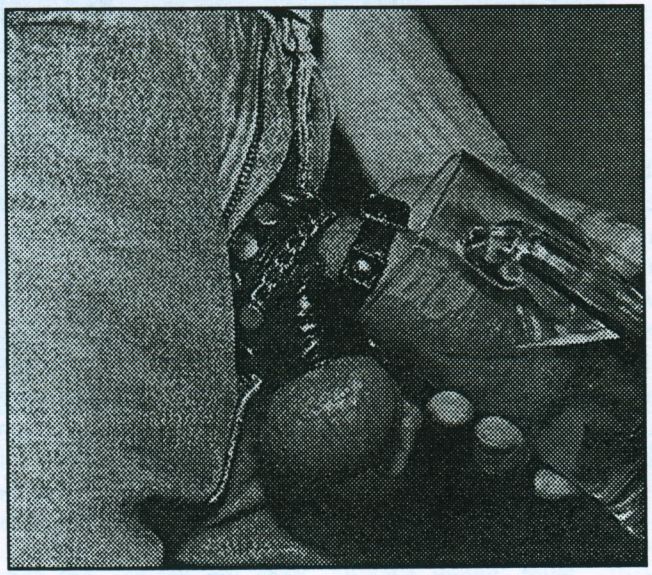
Going to the Wet Night party at The Club, the city's first, and justifiably famous, gay sex club, wasn't the only reason I had come to San Francisco, but it was certainly the major one. There simply weren't any kind of watersports opportunities where I lived. Now, the night I had waited all week for was here. My opportunity was at hand. Yet, I couldn't help wondering why in hell I was so nervous. Why was my heart pounding so hard I could hear it in my ears? Why was my stomach all twisted in knots of anxiety and tension?

I've known since I was at least a senior in high school, when I first pissed into a cup and drank the contents to the last drop, that I was a born pig. It had taken me years, however, ten long ones in fact, to convince myself that I was a pig whose cravings and desires deserved to be satisfied. Further, I knew I had found the place where I could explore these cravings and desires, I knew it!

But I still had to force myself to go inside that place, to push myself off the cliff of the alluring and the unknown. I couldn't, wouldn't, remain cowering across the street because I was afraid of, merely, what I did not yet know.

It was a fairly cool night in late October, but I wasn't cold, probably because I was so damn nervous. My watch said it was just after seven-thirty. The gruff, totally masculine voice on the message line for the Wet Night party at The Club had said to arrive between seven and nine. After nine, the doors would be locked and you couldn't get in. I hadn't wanted to be the first person there, nor did I want to be the last.

As I had slowly paced across the street from The Club, I had seen a handful of men entering it. I had been fascinated by them, even though I couldn't see them well because of the distance. Fascinated because they were men who shared my interests in at least one area of the spectrum of sexuality. But I would never get to meet any of these men, or do anything with them, if I didn't get my ass across the street and into The Club.



It was now or never, as the saying goes. I glanced up at the forbidding, overcast sky, and then, as soon as there was a break in the traffic, I dashed across the street. I didn't stop, because I knew if I did, I would never go through with what I wanted to do. Correction. Needed to do.

I pulled open the glass and metal door that was the entrance to The Club and found myself in a small room that was lit by a single yellow light in the ceiling. Directly in front of me there was a flight of stairs that led upward to who knows where. To my left there was a black wooden door with a brass knob. I tried to turn the knob. It was locked. Then I noticed a foot-long length of thin leather tied in a knot at the end hanging from a small hole in the wall just to the left of the door. How medieval, I thought, as I pulled the leather cord and heard a bell ringing on the other side of the wall.

I was about to pull the cord again when the door was suddenly opened by an extremely buff man who had leather bands strapped around both of his bulging biceps. The man's head was shaved and he was wearing tight jeans, heavy black boots, and nothing else. A tattoo of a rose decorated his smooth, tanned shoulder, and his right nipple was pierced by an arrow shaped piece of jewelry that looked as if it had hurt like hell when it was going in. Altogether, the man's appearance was more than intimidating, but when he spoke, it was in a surprisingly friendly voice. "Welcome to The Club," he said.

I stepped through the door with a heart that was pounding anew. I took a deep breath and tried to calm down. I was there, inside The Club! I had conquered the first of my irrational fears. I was in a new and different world, one I couldn't wait to start exploring and, perhaps more importantly, experiencing.

Half an hour later, I had paid for a year-long membership and the night's admission to The Club, had slowly explored its various play spaces, and was now standing up against the wall that faced a large, open area, with my hands clasped behind my back. The club was filling up with a lot of men, more than I had expected to see in my wildest dreams and fantasies. Serious cruising was taking place. The loud, thumping industrial music had a distinct, sexually raunchy quality.

I shifted restlessly on my feet. I wanted to do something with somebody, anybody. But, as usual, I was waging a battle with my totally annoying, totally irrational, reticence. Even in a place like this, where everyone knew what everyone else was into, I wanted someone to approach me first. To my great surprise, this is exactly what happened.

I had been watching a steady stream of men cruise into the part of the club where I was standing. One of them caught my undivided attention. He was about six-feet tall, had short, close-cropped, black hair, and a thick bush of a moustache surrounded by a five o'clock shadow that only heightened his masculinity.

He was bare chested, revealing a bounty of dark, curling hair from his shoulders all the way to his waist, and a stomach that protruded enough to say he was as human as everybody else. He was wearing nothing but black leather: chaps, motorcycle-cop boots, and a pouch that just barely covered his impressive equipment. I could see some of his pubic hairs peeping out from around the edges of the pouch.

I would have fallen to my knees in total and complete surrender to this daddy-bear-god of a man if it wasn't for the fact that my eyes locked with his. I held my breath during the next few seconds, as I waited to see if he was really interested in me or not. He started to pass by me, still holding my eyes hypnotically with his own, then stopped.

I let out a silent breath of relief and delight when the man walked back up to me and slid a couple of fingers of both hands into the open front loops of my jeans and roughly pulled me toward him. He smiled down at me, which had the simultaneous affect of softening the hard edges of his face and making him more compelling to me than ever. "Hello," he said in a rich, deep voice that rumbled with masculinity.

I returned the man's smile and said, "Hi," in a voice that I hoped wouldn't scare him away, or make him think I was in any way afraid of him.

"What's your name, boy?"

"Alex, sir. And...may I ask yours?"

"Bruce. But, for now, you will call me Sir, boy. I like the way you say it."

"Yes, sir," I said with all of the sudden dignity and subservience I felt.

Without any kind of warning, Bruce bent forward and kissed me hard. My mouth opened of its own accord, allowing his tongue to invade me and capture my own, turning that particular part of my anatomy into as willing and responsive a slave as I was sure the rest of me would become with his further direction. The kiss ended, and he looked at me with smoldering satisfaction.

"You're a good kisser, boy," he said.

I smiled. "Thank you, sir."

"You know, you're not the kind of boy one would expect to find in a place like this."

Bruce narrowed his eyes a bit as he continued to look down at me. After a moment or two he said, "You know, you're not the kind of boy one would expect to find in a place like this."

I was intrigued. "Why not, sir?"

"Because, you seem...innocent, in a way...a little too innocent to be into watersports, or even any kind of raunchy sex at all."

I don't know why, but I was sincerely touched by this observation. "Is that bad, that I seem innocent?"

"Not at all. It's hot, to me, at any rate. I love pissing on and in innocence...so to speak." He chuckled disarmingly. "And I hope I haven't offended you, by anything I've said in the last ten seconds."

"No, sir. You haven't offended me at all."

Bruce smiled his sexier-than-shit smile at me again. "Good," he said. I received another kiss, this one brief, but no less harder than the first. When he pulled back away from me however, the smile was no longer on his face.

"Get down on your knees, now, boy!"

The command had been issued softly, but with absolutely no allowance for anything less than complete obedience. "Yes, sir," I said as I slid downward until I was on my knees, looking up at the man who had become my master in the space of less than five minutes. My hands were on either side of his leather covered calves. I was vaguely aware of other men walking around us, and those that stopped to observe what we were doing. At that moment though, I didn't give a damn about them. I cared only about doing what would please my new master.

My hands slid down a bit over the black leather chaps, coming into contact with the tops of my master's motorcycle-cop boots. I tore my gaze away from his face and looked down at his boots.

I felt an overwhelming desire to service them. After a quick glance upward, I turned my full attention to the right boot, diving on it with my face as if I were a dog attacking a bone.

The rich smell of the black leather flooded my brain as I alternately licked, kissed and chewed on the boot. It tasted so sweet; so damn good. I finished with the right boot, moved to the left, and gave it the same kind of attention. As soon as I thought I had properly serviced the boots, I looked up at my master, who seemed to be looking down at me with the barest hint of approval.

"You're a good little slave-boy," he said.

I almost smiled, but stopped myself just in time, lest a smile break the mood. I merely said a quiet, "Thank you, sir."

I watched, transfixed, as my master unzipped the black leather pouch that concealed his manhood. His cock was enormous. Even in repose it was a blunt six inches long and nearly as thick in diameter. Hairy, low hanging balls complemented his shaft. I didn't have time for much more observation because, all of a sudden, my head was grabbed between two big hands and the massive cock that had been inches away from me was shoved half-way down my throat. Somehow, I remembered to breathe through my nose, so I didn't gag.

I managed to relax enough within the next couple of seconds to begin moving my master's huge tool in and out of my mouth. The monster was starting to get hard when the big hands, still on either side of my head, forced me to stop my movements. However, I still had the head and a couple of more inches of the cock comfortably inside of my mouth. I used my tongue to probe deep into the piss slit. I licked around the head as if it were a piece of the best candy I had ever tasted.

I was rewarded for these efforts with a smack on the side of my face. I glanced up at my master, a bit shaken, yet still managed to keep his cock in my mouth and between my lips. What had I done wrong? "Hold still, boy," I was told. "Don't do a damn thing with your mouth."

I closed my eyes and waited without moving a muscle. In a silent flash, I knew what was about to happen. I was about to receive my first taste of another man's piss. My heart started to pound in my chest and my ears again. I willed myself to relax and breath normally through my nose. My master's piss was what I wanted. My master's piss was what I needed.

The cock in my mouth softened and jerked a couple of times. Then, a stream of hot piss hit my tongue and began filling up my mouth. I swallowed a large gulp, tasting the saltiness, tasting the rank bitterness of another man's liquid waste, feeling it slide and burn down my throat all the way to my stomach. I swallowed, and swallowed again, the hot piss streaming forcefully into my mouth until it was too much. Piss began to spill out of my mouth and over my chin, down my neck, soaking my t-shirt, and seeping into my jeans.

Eventually, without my wanting it to, the stream of piss into my mouth came to its natural end after a couple of short, hard squirts. I gulped down the last couple of swallows of the golden liquid, then released the cock I had been holding in my mouth with my lips and tongue. I licked the taste of piss off of my lips and swallowed it too, mixed with my own saliva. I raised my eyes and looked up at my master.

"Stand up, boy," he ordered.

After being on my knees for so long, this proved a bit more difficult than I had expected, but I somehow managed to scramble up. My master shoved me back up against the wall and pinned me with another rough, tongue filled kiss. When he ended it, I was left panting and...and wanting even more of whatever he had to offer.

"You took my piss pretty good, boy," my master said. "Didn't spill too much, for a beginner."

"Thank you, sir," I said.

"However, before we continue our...activities...I want some of the other men to have at you. You need...and I know you want...the experience...the adventure."

"Yes, sir."

"I, too, intend to enjoy some variety while I'm here. But, don't you dare forget, boy, I'm not finished with you yet. Not by any means. Before this night is out, you're going to take more of my piss when and where I tell you to. You'll swallow all of it next time, or else. And then I'm going to fuck the shit out of you, boy. Understand?"

I nodded my head. "Yes, sir."

My master stepped back a pace, releasing me from my imprisonment against the wall. I watched him carefully tuck his cock and balls back into his black leather pouch, then zip the pouch closed. He nodded at me and walked away.

After a moment or two, I became aware of my surroundings again. It felt a little like I had reentered reality after having spent an unknown amount of time in a fantasy world. Perhaps that was exactly what I had done.

I wasn't sure of what to do next, so I forced myself to walk further into the large open space of the room that was directly in front of me. I went over and sat down on a wooden box jutting out from one of the walls which was just high and just wide enough for that purpose. From this vantage point, I could observe the cruising that was going on. The Club was packed by now, with all different kinds of men who had their interest in watersports in common.

When it came to life with flickering images, I looked up at the giant video screen that was suspended high up on the wall against which my first adventures with my master had taken place. Two leather-clad tops were pissing thick golden streams all over a naked and chained bottom, who was crouched at their boots. My cock got hard and my heart started to pound again with anticipation and excitement.

I wanted more piss. I wanted more piss bad. I needed more piss. I needed to taste and to swallow more piss from hot men who knew how to give me what they had to offer. I needed to be soaked and dripping with piss, even more than I already was.

I found myself wondering what that beer would taste like recycled and pissed out of the man's cock, into my mouth, and down my throat.

There were plenty of opportunities right before my eyes, I reminded myself. And, at that exact moment, one of those opportunities was walking straight toward me. As he got closer, I eyed him as intently as he eyed me. He wasn't much taller than my five-foot-five self, but he was far bulkier. He was wearing a pair of tight jeans, an equally tight t-shirt, and black boots. His hair was cut short, military style. His face was punctuated by a thick, salt-and-pepper moustache. In his right hand he was carrying a can of beer. I found myself wondering what that beer would taste like recycled and pissed out of the man's cock, into my mouth, and down my throat.

We said clipped hellos to each other as the man sat down on the wooden box not too close, yet not too far away from me either. In order to keep my interest from appearing too obvious, I looked around the club at the cruising men, and I watched what was happening on the video screen. The man next to me seemed to be doing the same. He also appeared intent on finishing his beer, which was fine with me, because that meant he would have that much more piss to give in a little while.

In time, the man finished the beer, crumpled up the aluminum can in his large hand, and set it on the box between us. He looked at me and said, casual as shit, "Wanna get wet?"

I didn't even have to think about it. "Yeah," I said.

We both stood. The man walked toward the center of the room. I followed a pace behind. He pointed to a space on the floor without saying a word. I went to where he had directed, spun around, and dropped to my knees with my hands clasped behind my back. For a brief moment, I thought about the fact that I was going to be on display for any and all to see as the man before me pissed on me. This thought, and its ramifications, vanished as the man unbuttoned his jeans and pulled out a fat sausage of an uncut cock that left me nearly breathless. It wasn't as large as my master's, but it was just as impressive.

Within seconds, two more men joined us. Both of them pulled out their big cocks. All I could think about was receiving their piss. I was more than ready. Like a ravenous vampire in search of blood, my thirst needed to be slaked once again.

The stream from the man who had asked me if I wanted to get wet started first. It was hard,and thick, and wet. It struck my chest, and it was so hot I thought it would burn a hole in my t-shirt. I closed my eyes and bent forward. Hot piss splashed all over my face and into my hair. I opened my mouth to catch and swallow the recycled beer. I gulped down the salty, funky liquid as if I had been thirsty for days.

By now, the two other men were pissing on me as well. I was being showered by hot manpiss. Their streams were just as hard, just as thick, and just as wet as the first man's. I leaned back and stuck my chest out so that I could be thoroughly soaked in piss. I spread my upper legs as far as I could so that my piss-masters had a clear shot at my crotch, which they took full advantage of. Their piss quickly soaked through my jeans and came into contact with my hard cock.

I closed my eyes, bent forward, and opened my mouth again. I took and swallowed large mouthfuls of the three streams of piss aimed at me. I couldn't get enough of their piss. I wanted to wear and to drink all of the piss they had to give.

As each man finished pissing on me and in me, he walked away, until I was left alone in the center of the room, completely drenched in piss. I took a deep breath and let it out. I wiped at my eyes with my dry hands. I used my fingers to brush my piss-wet hair back.

My mouth tasted like piss again, and I couldn't stop swallowing that taste. It was so damn good! The pissy wetness of my clothes was getting cold already, but it was a good kind of cold wetness, because I had earned it by being true to the piss pig I was. And, not only my clothes, but my entire self, positively reeked of piss. I breathed in deep the strong stench, and almost became lightheaded because of it.

At last, I rose slowly to my feet. The Club was still packed, and I wanted more piss. Several men eyed me as I made my way toward the back of the club, but I was intent on my destination. I walked up a short ramp and found myself in a fairly small room lit by a single red bulb in the center of the ceiling. The room had a thick smell of exhaled man-breath that was almost stifling.

At the same time, the smell added everything to the raunchy, sleazy atmosphere.

When my eyes finally adjusted to the semi-darkness, I saw that the room was crowded with men, some standing, some on their knees with cocks in their mouths. One of the standing men was my master, who had his cock buried up to the balls in the man on his knees before him. He was leaning casually back against the wall, drinking a beer. For one brief second, I felt a pang of envy because of the man on his knees before my master. But the envy vanished when I remembered my own bounty of experiences so far this evening, and thought of those that were still to come.

My master signaled to me. Without hesitation I made my way through the swarm of men over to him, passing a large metal trough in the center of the room as I did so. When I reached him, he gave me his order while letting me watch him pull his cock out of the mouth of the man at his boots and begin to piss all over him. "Get in the trough. Now, boy!"

I scrambled to get to the trough before anybody else did. As I stepped into it, I realized that the bottom of it was filled with a thin layer of old piss. The smell of that old piss from countless men intoxicated me anew. I settled into the trough as if it were a bath tub, feeling the old piss soak through my jeans to the skin of the backs of my legs and the bottom of my ass. I closed my eyes, leaned back, and waited for any and all who wanted to take advantage of me in my new position.

Before long, I felt hands on my jeans, unbuttoning them and pulling out my hard cock and my balls, exposing them to what was to come. A stream of hot piss hit my cock, followed by another. Soon, I was being pissed on from all directions. I lost count of how many streams of piss were hitting me. I simply gave myself up to wallowing in the piss that was raining down on me from an untold number of men.

The multiple and varied streams of piss dwindled away until I wasn't being pissed on at all.

That was when I opened my eyes again. I saw two men stepping up next to the trough to my right, near my upper body.

One of them was taller than the other. He had a moustache and full beard. He was wearing a cap on his head, camouflage pants, and military boots. His lightly hairy chest was bare. The camouflage pants were open at the crotch, out from which a long, thick cock was jutting in repose. The shorter man was clean shaven and wore nothing but a stained, white jockstrap and a pair of construction-type boots. It was clear to me that these two men were together; lovers or fuck buddies out for an adventure that I was suddenly sure was going to somehow include me.

I watched as the taller man turned the shorter man so that I had a better view of his hairless ass. The taller man then had the shorter man bend over, and I got to look at his winking asshole. I wanted to stick my tongue deep inside of it, but I wanted more to watch what they were going to do next. Besides, I was too far away unless one of us moved. I glanced to my left and saw that my master was there, alone

I simply gave myself up to wallowing in the piss that was raining down on me from an untold number of men.

now, and next to the trough, giving his massive cock slow, easy strokes. Sensing that he was as intrigued as I was, I turned my attention back to the two men at my right.

The taller man slapped the shorter man's ass a couple of times, and then began to rub his big hand around in a circular motion over the twin globes of smooth buttflesh. Then he spit into his hand and applied the spit to the asshole he was so obviously in control of, lubing it up the natural way. When he finished, he inserted his long, thick middle finger into the asshole. I heard a low, animal-like groan come from his partner. The man inserted another finger, and then another, and began to finger fuck his partner furiously.

I looked around the room. Everyone seemed to be intent upon the show the man with the beard and his partner were putting on. My master was still easily stroking his now semi-hard cock.

The man with the beard pulled his fingers out of his partner's ass, slapped it once more, then moved him so that he was in position to receive his cock. He spit into his hand again a couple of times and lubed himself up. But he only worked himself up to not even half-hardness. It took me a moment or two to realize what he was going to do. He pulled his partner closer roughly by the hips and worked his half-hard cock into his ass. Then he took several deep breaths. "Ahhh," he said through an exhalation of breath.

I knew, whether it was through my pig instincts or some other intuitive sense, that the man was pissing into his partner's ass. His words confirmed my instinctive knowledge. "Take my piss. Take it all the way up your ass." His partner merely groaned. Soon, the man pulled out and said, "Hold it up there. Don't spill a drop of my piss until I tell you to." His partner stood up straight and nodded, not saying a word.

The tall man looked down at me, while he wordlessly moved his partner closer to the trough.

"You know what to do next," he said to him while still looking down at me. In the next moment, his partner had straddled the trough above my head and was lowering his ass toward my face. When it was close enough, I could smell sweat and the unmistakable odor of another man's ripe ass. I licked my lips and stuck my tongue out. I started to lick the puckered hole that had been presented to me.

The ass above me was slapped several times as I licked at its hole. And then the command came. "Now, drop that load of my piss."

The asshole opened above me. I closed my eyes as the piss that had been trapped inside began to flow out of it. It splashed over my face in steady jets. I opened my mouth and managed to get a mouthful of the piss without choking on it. It was still warm. I swirled it around in my mouth. In addition to the saltiness and the bitterness, the piss had the unmistakable taste of a man's asshole. I gulped it down and opened my mouth to receive another load, which I swallowed as well, and then opened my mouth again for yet another. This kind of piss was almost better than piss directly from a man's cock. Almost.

After the shorter man had finished pumping his partner's piss onto my face and into my mouth, I continued to lick his asshole. I even managed to stick my tongue up deep inside of him a couple of times, tasting his piss coated shit chute. It was while I was doing this that I let my own load of piss go. It felt so good to let the stream which had been building up inside of me go, wetting myself even more. It felt so good to know that my own piss was mixing with the piss of all the other men who had pissed on me.

When the two men had gone, my master straddled the trough next. "I have another load of piss for you, boy. And you're gonna take it all, aren't you boy?"

"Yes, sir," I said just before he stuffed his cock into my mouth and started to piss within seconds. I gulped down what he had to give this time without spilling a drop, prouder of myself than I ever would've thought possible for being able to do so.

I gulped down what he had to give this time without spilling a drop, prouder of myself than I ever would've thought possible for being able to do so.

My master helped me out of the trough when he was through pissing down my throat. I was literally dripping with piss. But neither he, nor I, minded. I looked at him as he looked at me. He opened his arms and I went into them and buried my face against his hairy chest. He chuckled as he wrapped his arms tightly and protectively around me. "You've been a good little piggy tonight, haven't you boy?," he asked.

I looked up at him. "Yes, sir. Do I seem as innocent now as I did before, sir?"

He considered this for a moment. "In a way, yes, you do. And in another way, you don't. I don't know if I can explain it."

"That's all right, sir. It doesn't matter. But..."

"What?"

"Throughout everything that's happened since I met you earlier, sir, I didn't forget that I belong to you. And...I still want you to fuck the shit out of me."

There was a moment of silence.

"Well," my master said, "I'm not going to disappoint you, boy. A promise is a promise, as the saying goes. Come on."

I was led out of the little room with the trough and into the main part of the club. I noticed that the crowd had thinned considerably. That was when I remembered it was a Wednesday night. A lot of the men who had been here probably had jobs to get to in the morning.

We turned into a hallway that brought us to a fairly large, dimly lit room that was deserted.

My eyes quickly adjusted to the dim light. I saw that the room contained two pieces of furniture, if a sling could be considered furniture. A wide, black leather couch was up against the far wall. The sling was suspended from the ceiling in the corner not too far from the couch. On a shelf jutting out from the wall next to the couch, there was a large bottle of lube and a bowl filled with condoms.

We walked over to the couch. My master got a condom from the bowl and moved the bottle of lube to a place on the floor next to the couch where it would be within easy reach. "Take off your clothes, boy, except for your shoes and socks. You have to leave those on in here, it's part of the rules."

"Yes, sir," I said. The t-shirt was easy to take-off, but I had to take off my tennis shoes in order to get out of my jeans, then put them back on. All the while I was doing this, my master stood there stroking his massive cock into hardness. I finally finished with my clothes and my shoes, and stood next to him with my hands clasped behind my back. He leaned toward me and kissed me quick without touching me otherwise.

"Lie down on your back on the couch," my master ordered softly.

The leather felt cool against my backside as I settled into the cushions of the couch. My master straddled me.

I bent forward and kissed the black boot next to me. Then I settled back again and opened my mouth to receive his cock. Remembering to breathe through my nose, I took him all the way down my throat. His thick pubic hairs tickled my nose. He began to fuck my face hard and fast, then slow and deep, then hard and fast again.

When he pulled out of my mouth, I could tell he was as hard as a fucking rock just by the sight of him. He bent down toward the floor for some lube, which he proceeded to work onto his dick. He handed me the condom he had been holding in his hand. "Put it on, boy," he growled. I ripped off the wrapper and fit the condom over his cock, the cock I wanted buried deep in my ass. Bad.

My master stood up next to the couch, bent over again to get some more lube, which he put onto his condom covered prick. He worked the excess into my asshole with his fingers. He finished readying me, then climbed between my spread legs. I wrapped my arms around him as he leaned down and kissed me again, his tongue filling up my mouth like his cock had not long ago.

A thought, independent, yet inextricably linked with what was happening, and all that had happened between me and the man in my arms, flashed through my mind. I realized all of a sudden that I was thinking of him as more than a Sir, or even a Master. The deep kiss was brought to an end. I spoke before I had a chance to stop myself. "Sir?"

"What, boy?"

I swallowed back my sudden fear, and concentrated instead on the intensity of the rightness of what I was feeling. "Sir, would you mind if I called you Daddy for a little while?" For some reason, the thought, the fantasy, of this man on top of me being my father was a powerful turn on. And I really didn't care why. I held my breath as I waited for his response.

"No, I wouldn't mind at all. Now, what do you want your daddy to do to you?"

Relief and burning desire surged through me. "I want my daddy to fuck me, hard."

My hand was caught and moved to my new daddy's crotch. I grabbed his hard cock and squeezed it with all the strength I had. He moaned.

"Put your daddy's prick inside you, boy. Put it where you know you want it."

I did as I was told, guiding my daddy's cock to my asshole, and worked the head of it inside of myself.

"Get ready for one helluva fuck, boy."

I took a deep, steadying breath. In the next second, he slammed into me. Sharp pain shot through me first. I felt like I was being ripped in half because the cock inside of me was so damn big. But then, a deep, welling pleasure began to take hold of me. I wrapped my arms tighter around my daddy's neck as he started to move slowly in and out of me, giving me a little bit of time to get used to his massive size.

I soon moved my hands down his sweat covered back, to the hairy cheeks of his ass and pulled him toward me and into me hard. "Daddy," I said through heavy breaths, "fuck me harder. Please, fuck me harder."

"You're a greedy little fuck, aren't you." There was a pause. "But you'll get what you want."

These last words came out of him as a growl as he started slamming into me with full force. The pleasure of being so thoroughly fucked built in continuous waves inside of me. "That's it, daddy. Fuck me, please." I started moaning and groaning almost incoherently. My breaths were short, gulping gasps for air. My fingers tore into the hairy flesh of his ass, urging him to fuck me as hard and as fast as he could.

"Oh, man," my daddy said through clenched teeth. "Oh, shit. I'm gonna cum!" With one last powerful surge into me, his cock began to convulse wildly as he shot his load into the tip of the condom inside of me. When he finished shuddering from his release, he collapsed on top of me.

A couple of minutes passed in which he caught his breath. Then he raised his head and said, "Now it's your turn, boy." He slipped out of me and then dove for my still hard cock that was aching for its own release. He took it all the way down his throat and started sucking on it as if he were a human vacuum cleaner. The pleasure was so intense that I was on the edge of cumming within seconds.

"Noooo!" I cried when his mouth moved off of my cock. But the pleasure of his hot, wet mouth was replaced by the pleasure of his strong fist, which he clamped around my cock like a vise. I started to shudder uncontrollably. The waves of pleasure crested inside of me so quickly that my breath was taken away. "I'm cumming!" I managed to cry, not a second before my load shot out of my dick and splattered, hot and sticky, all over my chest.

By the time we had both stopped panting, and had luxuriated in the sweet aftermath of hot mansex long enough, we were almost the last people in The Club except for the employees. We changed into our extra set of street clothes in silence. Bruce offered to drive me back to my hotel afterward. He pulled up across the street from it less than ten minutes later.

"Thanks for the ride, Bruce," I said. "And a great evening."

Bruce smiled and said, "You're welcome. And thank you, too." He leaned over me to get into his glove compartment. After a moment or two, he found what he was looking for and handed it to me. It was a business card with his name, address, and phone number printed in neat script on it. "Call me the next time you're in San Francisco."

Now it was my turn to smile. "I'll do that. I promise." Impulsively, I leaned over and kissed him softly on the cheek, his five o'clock shadow tickling my lips a little. "Goodnight, Daddy," I said. Then I scrambled out of the car before anything else could be said, and ran across the street to the hotel.

Once in my room, I quickly got undressed and pulled the covers almost all the way off the bed. I retrieved my piss soaked jeans out of the plastic garbage bag I had been given at The Club, and hopped onto the bed with them. I covered my face with the jeans and inhaled deeply. The stench of the piss seemed even stronger to me now than it had before. Even though the jeans were cold, I started to rub them all over my body like a towel I was using to dry off with. At the same time, I wrapped my hand around my dick and started to jack off. It didn't take long before I shot another load of cum all over my chest.

I felt both utterly spent and relaxed. I had had a truly wet night, one that I hoped was only the first of many. I had also become a true pig, at least by my way of thinking, by virtue of the fact that I wasn't just playing with my own piss anymore. I had tasted and worn the piss of other men. Their piss was still filling up my belly. I smiled with a great sense of raunchy, sleazy satisfaction because of these thoughts.

A hard earned tiredness struck me after a while. So, I rolled over and turned the lights out. In the darkness I found and pulled the covers of the bed over me. I rolled up my wet, piss soaked jeans and placed them next to my pillow. The rank smell of them carried me into the sweet world of sleep and dreams.

Note: All but the first picture in this story were taken at Water Boys piss parties during the International Mr. Leather competition held in Chicago in March of 1996. To say the parties were hot is a gross understatement.

I covered my face with the jeans and inhaled deeply. The stench of the piss seemed even stronger to me now than it had before.

VENGEANCE IS MINE

CHAPTER FIVE - ESCAPE

Copyright 1996 W. Estelle

In the last episode, our dark, humpy, hung Queero, Marco, had been taken to the hospital, after being shot in the ass by his mother. He raped the paramedics en route to the hospital, then played with his 'sloppy' doctor and the detective investigating him. All before Mona and Nan broke him out of his guarded hospital room.

"Floor it! We've been spotted!" Marco yelled from the back of the van. "Get us the hell out of here!"

"Why? Oh Shit! Hold on, people," Nan said after spotting Marco's father.

"Okay, Nan. Speed it up and get us over to where we parked the Lincoln. We're gonna have to make the switch pronto, otherwise we're gonna be fucked," Mona said.

Nan gritted her teeth as she made the van fly through the small town streets. She maneuvered the van as though pretending to be in the Indy 500, weaving through the sparse traffic and barreling through lights that had just turned red, and never once stopping with the rest of the cars. As Nan drove, Mona hurriedly changed out of her garish nurse's uniform and back into her comfortable clothes. Nan made it to the side street where the car was parked and pulled the van up behind it.

After the van was parked, Mona and Nan each grabbed a hold of Marco and dragged him out of the van and tossed him in the back of the Lincoln. They then jumped in but this time Nan changed and Mona drove. Mona made her way slowly out of town, not wanting to attract the attention that Nan did when she drove. Ten minutes later and they were at the outskirts of Marco's home town. No one seemed to be following.

Once Marco realized that he was out of danger, his body relaxed and he floated off to dreamland in the big cushiony back seat of the car. Mona woke him when they had reached the airport in Charlotte.

"Get your lazy ass up, Marco! We have a plane to catch."

"Huh? Where are we?"

"At the airport. Now get up and get changed. We're taking you to New York City."

"New York? Why?"

"Because you can't go home. We're taking you to catch a flight to Paris. There you can recuperate at Lucifer's mansion."

"Yeah, the fancy shmancy place where all the neighbors are snobbish because you don't speak French 'properly'," Nan chimed in. "I wonder If we'll get to see Brigitte again?"

"Why would you want to?"

"So that I can get my hands on that little dog of hers. The one that tried to bight my finger off."

"As if anything could gnarl through those thick digits!" Marco joked.

"Many a woman has enjoyed these digits. And here's a special one for you," Nan replied, lifting her middle finger.

"Let's continue this later," Mona said. She handed Marco a bag containing clothing. "Here, Marco. Get dressed."

Marco undid the hospital gown, pulled out the pair of pants and pulled them on. "Do you think you could have gotten a bigger size? I don't think there's enough room for all of us in here," he told them as he pulled on the waistband.

"Hey. So what if they're a little big. Should I have gotten your usual boys size extra small that makes you look like you're gonna burst at the seams?"

"No, but five sizes too big isn't good either."

"Excuse me, Mr. Blackwell, but in all the rush I didn't have time to get exact measurements. Now hurry the hell up before we miss our plane."

Marco pulled on the rest of the clothes then gently got out of the car. Thankfully, they were parked in the airport parking lot in one of the handicapped spaces close to the walkway. As they made their way to the terminal, people were looking at Marco strangely because the normal fitting shirt and the large pants made him look like one of the big butt people from the old Saturday Night Live skits.

The three of them made it to the gate as the gate attendant made her last call for TWA flight #300. With tickets in hand they boarded the plane and took their seats in first class for the flight.

"I can't imagine you girls trying to squeeze into the seats in coach," Marco commented.

"Oh, shut the hell up! At least we can sit here comfortably, unlike some little pansy with an extra hole in his ass!" Nan shot back.

"You two can bicker all you want. I'm gonna get these headphones on and zone out," Mona told them. "But when the sky-slut comes by, order me a beer."

Because Marco and Nan no longer had Mona as an audience, they did the same as Mona and sank into their seats, waiting for the stewardess.

"Can I get you something to drink?"

Marco turned towards the voice and saw before him a hunky little blonde with a tight body bending down and bringing his face close to Marco's.

"Uh, yeah. Can you bring me a beer?"

"Sure! Would you like a foreign or domestic brand?"

"You don't seem foreign, Paul," Marco said, reading the name tag pinned to the steward's lapel, "But I'll try one."

"Hmmm. Too bad this isn't a longer flight," the steward answered back, then winked and moved onto Mona and Nan. "And what can I get you?"

"Bring us two dark beers. Something good."

"Two each?"

"Sure," Nan replied.

Marco watched Paul take orders from the other passengers. He was getting excited watching Paul's tight ass as it clenched and relaxed. Paul disappeared for a couple of minutes then returned with his beer. When he got to Marco's seat, he looked down at Marco's crotch, then smiled at the way Marco's huge dick was making the baggy pants tent out.

"Is that for me?" he asked Marco.

Marco looked down and saw the huge tent, then quickly pushed it down with his hands. "Yeah, it is. Here, feel it," Marco answered.

Paul quickly looked around, then reached down and squeezed Marco's cock.

"Ooh! I like that! But I'll have to give you my number for another time. I have to work a flight to Paris right after this one. Otherwise, you would be visiting my place in New York."

"Funny you should mention Paris. I'm on tonight's flight there also."

"Really?"

"Really."

"Great! After everyone's asleep, maybe you and I can have a night cap."

"I can't wait," Marco replied.

After handing over Marco's beer, Paul went back to work taking care of the passengers.

The rest of the flight went smoothly, getting them to New York forty-five minutes before the flight to Paris. After departing the plane, Mona, Marco and Nan, went over to the ticket counter to get tickets for the flight to Paris.

Facing Realities

PART THREE by Member #167

In parts one and two, Member #167 got into his first solo watersports scene in a sunny knoll in his favorite park. After the park closed, he lingered near the gate looking for trouble. He was soon confronted by Officer Bill, a stern disciplinarian, who methodically cuffed, pissed on and in, fucked and used #167, after which Officer Bill issued him a conditional citation and a set of instructions for their next meeting the following week. 167 arrived at the park, as per instructions, filled beyond human endurance with water. Officer Bill kneeded 167's stomach until all his clothes were soaked, then tied him to a picnic shelter, where officer Frank joined the action. #167 was blindfolded and used as the officers' fuck and piss toy.

After several sessions with Officer Bill, I began to trust him completely. We had become good friends and enjoyed each other's company. I never knew what to expect from him for sure; however, I knew that he would respect my limits. We often talked about our fantasies and common interests. He had a confident way of reassuring me about new adventures I had yet to explore. Officer Bill also was a master at integrating our discussions into a future encounter.

By the end of the summer, many of my long-held inhibitions had become distant memories...Officer Bill had transformed me into the lusty pigboy that I had only secretly fantasized about in my mind. I needed to satisfy all of his kinky desires. I wanted to more than he allowed.

Usually, Officer Bill would have me meet him at the Forest Preserve at closing time. We would meet in different places around the wooded grounds. Sometimes, we would take advantage of the secluded park; other times he would meet me for a few minutes to show off his hulking body in his patrol uniform. Then, he would tell me where to meet him after he was off duty. He knew that this routine made me even hornier when we would finally get together.

Officer Bill had insisted that I wear a pager so that he could get in touch with me whenever he needed. No one knew that I had the pager except for him. He had brought it with him one time when we got together. While I stood naked before him, he slid a nickel-plated, metal ring over my cock and balls. Then, he clipped the pager to the cock ring so that it rested up against my scrotum. Officer Bill only allowed me to remove it when I showered or when I was in his company.

He kept the pager on vibration mode only so that whenever he called, I would feel my crotch and ass tingle.

Wearing the pager made for some interesting moments at work. I began to wear three pairs of underwear to the office to be sure that the sound of the vibration was muffled.

If I was unable to get right to a phone, Officer Bill would simply call over and overagain. He said he liked hearing about my difficulties in containing myself and the often untimely erections I got when he would call repeatedly while I was leading a sales meeting or discussing important issues with my supervisors. Then, of course was the problem of getting to the restroom to check the pager for his messages and instructions!

One day while I was at work, he paged me every half hour...sometimes every five minutes. I was busy with meetings and found it difficult to get to a phone. When I finally returned his calls, Officer Bill was quite impatient. "When you get done with that fuckin' desk job of yours, boy, you're mine! Do you understand?"

Before I could answer, he barked, "I don't want to hear your shit, fuckhead! I don't like to be kept waiting in line after everyone else, you good-for-nothing, raunchy, little pisswhore! Get your fuckin' ass over to the White Pine Grove by 7:00pm...and don't be late! Wear the 'wet suit', you worthless slut!" With that he hung up the phone.

I hadn't ever heard him quite like this before! I couldn't figure out what had set off his mood. I knew what the 'wet suit' was...and I knew that his request meant that he was in the mood for some serious action tonight.

As the afternoon drew to a close, I was watching the clock to be sure that I got out of the office right on time. Traffic could be miserable at rush hour, and I couldn't waste a minute in order to make it home, change and get to the park by 7:00. Fifteen minutes before I had planned to leave, my supervisor walked over to my desk. He had just received a fax which required my immediate attention before I could leave. By the time I took care of the extra work, I was running twenty minutes late.

Traffic was heavier than usual, and I didn't walk into my apartment until 6:45 pm. "Damn! Of all the days to be late," I thought. I began changing out of my work clothes as I walked through my front door. I could only begin to imagine what Officer Bill's mood might be. Just then, my pager went off! I pulled my slacks down over my thighs and shoved my hand down my briefs, fumbling for the pager vibrating against my balls!

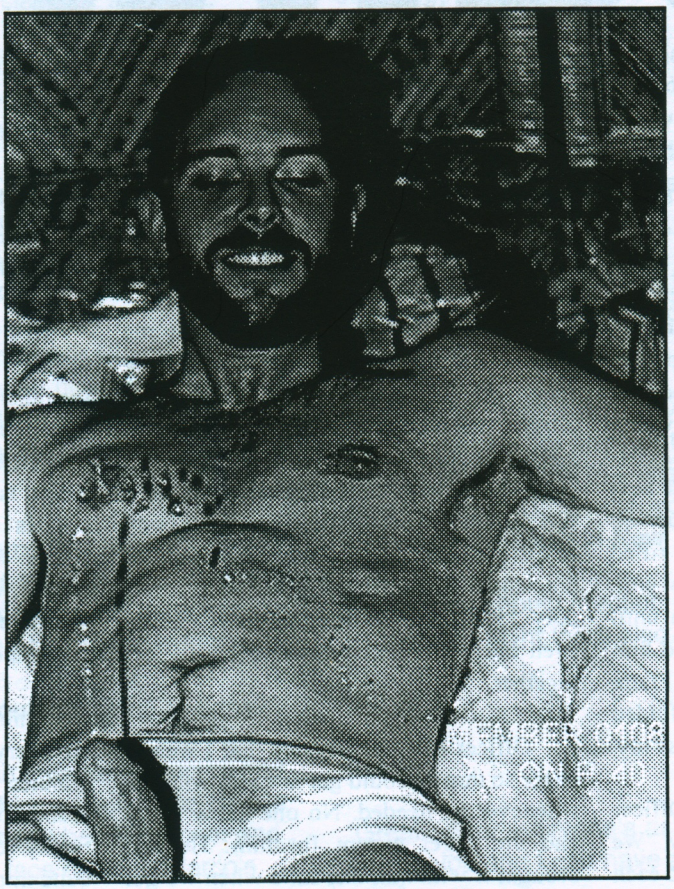
"Don't be late" was the message. The park was more than twenty minutes away and it was nearly 7:00! "Fuck!" I screamed as I headed towards the bedroom. I opened the bottom drawer in the chest next to my bed. There it was...rig ht where it was supposed to be: the 'wet suit'.

The wet suit was created by Officer Bill and his friends. One night he had asked me for one of my white cotton, tank-top-style undershirts, a jockstrap, a pair of 501 Levis, and a pair of white socks. He returned them all to me about a week later.

When he brought them back, he had a broad grin across his face as he handed me a plastic laundry bag. I opened it to find my clothes...but in small, sealed plastic bags! The undershirt, jockstrap and socks were in individual bags. Besides the article of clothing, each bag held a small amount of familiar, yellow fluid and the once-white fabric was now a dull, golden color! My jeans were in a small, white garbage bag that had been sealed with duct tape. I could see the amber urine through the plastic.

I must have looked a bit puzzled, because Officer Bill looked at me and said, "is something wrong? Go ahead, put'em on for me.

As I opened each little package, the aroma of piss erupted into the air and filled my nostrils. Each package had its own unique musky odor. Officer Bill said that he had passed them onto several of his friends; each had pissed into one or more of the packages. The clothes were still wet when I pulled them over my skin the first time. As I stood before Officer Bill in the urine soaked clothes, he smiled with approval. Without a word, he reached out with his two massive hands and pushed me to my knees.



Deftly, he unzipped his fly, pulled out his throbbing meat and shoved it into my eager mouth. Grabbing the back of my head, he pumped his tool furiously into my face until he unleashed a thick, hot load of jism down my throat and into my gullet.

But, I couldn't waste time thinking about all of that now. I was late already! The 'wet suit' had long since air dried. The cotton fabric had become stiff and pungent with a strong yellow cast. As I pulled on the piss-dyed fabric, my pager went off!

"Shit!" I exclaimed. "He's so damned impatient, today." I looked at the clock; it was 7:00 pm. I grabbed a few more things and headed off to the car.

Now, the pager was going off every three to four minutes! As I pulled into the park entrance, the pager went off again...and, then, again...and, finally, a third time! I raced to where I was supposed to meet him. As I came around the bend, I saw him sitting in the patrol car...alone in the parking area.

As I pulled up beside him, he got out of the squadcar and came towards my car. Before I could say a word, Officer Bill said, "You're really pushin' it, today, boy! Don't you take me seriously anymore, you fuckin' slut? Get outta that damn car and get your sorry ass into the latrine," he barked as he pointed to the restrooms across the small clearing. "I don't want to hear a fuckin' word from you, understand?"

"Do you understand, boy?" he repeated. "Yes, Sir! I underst..," I began. "I said not a fuckin' word, boy!"

I started off for the restrooms and could hear his steady gait behind me. Once inside, I stood with my back to the door in the far corner of the stifling, concrete block room.

Officer Bill came up behind me, reached around, grabbed the front of my undershirt and tore it off my torso. As the golden cotton fell to the floor in shreds, Officer Bill ground his crotch into the small of my back. Then, he pushed me to the concrete floor.

As he moved in front of me, he unleashed his thick dick. Shoving it in my mouth, he slowly released a steady stream of warm, yellow piss down my throat.

When he had finished, he grabbed the remnants of my undershirt, wrapped them into a ball and put the gag into my mouth. He led me to the far urinal and made me squat on the rim of the porcelain toilet, balanced over the bowl. He put my arms down between my legs and handcuffed them around the plumbing pipes at the rear of the toilet below my ass. Then, he took out a small knife and carefully began cutting and ripping the denim off of my body until my jeans were little more than rags on the floor!

Then, he reached down and cut the legstraps loose from the pouch of my jock so that it hung from its elastic band around my waist. He grabbed a long strip of the denim and wrapped it around my head so that it covered my eyes.

As he stood there, Officer Bill began playing with my chest, rubbing and pulling on my hardening nipples rolling them between his large fingers and thumbs. I could feel my cock throbbing and imagined the sight of thick, clear pre-cum oozing from its taut head.

After a short time, he left without a word, leaving the door to the toilet stall swinging to and fro. Within minutes, I felt the familiar vibration below my balls as I heard the steps of someone approaching. Instantly, I realized it was two men!

I heard them both step up to the row of urinals and splash their yellow streams into them. Just as I thought they were leaving, I realized that one of them had come over to the stall and was staring at me. He reached down between my legs and unlocked the handcuffs long enough to free me from the plumbing. Just as quickly, the cuffs were locked again. He brushed his hands over my body, playing with my cock and balls as well as my ass.

Then, I heard the other man speak: "Let's get him outta here." The two men carried me outside and laid me inside the trunk of a car. As the trunk lid was closed, I realized immediately that it was a small car. From the items I could feel around me, I knew it was my own car. Someone closed the door to my car and started the engine. I heard the other car pull up behind us. Soon we were headed somewhere, but I didn't know where. I could hear the other car—and other traffic—behind us after we left the park. What had Officer Bill planned this time? We drove about thirty minutes...I lost track of the turns we had made.

I was completely disoriented when I heard the sound of a garage door opening. We pulled forward and stopped as the door rumbled closed behind us. Shortly, I was carried into a building and laid on what seemed to be an examining table from a doctor's office. As I lay on my stomach, I sensed the touch of a lubricated, latex glove slide over my ass. A small pillow was placed under my stomach so that my ass protruded into the air. My legs were spread apart and my ankles were placed in stirrups of sorts at the side of the examining table.

Slowly, a lubricated finger began moving up and down the vulnerable crack of my ass.

Then, a second gloved and lubricated hand began milking my cock and balls. Without a word, the pager was removed from my shiny and slick cock ring and the hands continued in a slow, methodical exploration of my body.

As one hand slowly milked my cock, the other hand rubbed my ass and explored my thighs. As the hands moved slowly and silently over my body, I felt a warm gel being spread over my crotch, ass and thighs. I couldn't figure out what was happening at first. As I felt the cool metal touch my skin, I realized that whoever was in the room with me was preparing to shave me!

Slowly, the razor whisked across my ass cheeks and down my thighs. The air in the room felt cool against the hairless skin. With quick, short strokes, the razor moved around across my asscrack and around my puckered asshole, removing the dark, thick hair which had curled their moments before! I was turned onto my back as the shaving continued across my crotch and balls and over my thighs down to my knees. The warm gel was then spread over my abdomen and my chest and under my arms. The razor followed quickly, stripping me of my thick, curly mat. The latex gloved hands rubbed lotion across my newly shaved torso.

As I lay there blindfolded, I could only imagine what I must look like, what this man looked like, what the room looked like. I wondered where Officer Bill was; I wondered who the other men had been and where they were now.

As I lay on my back, my legs were thrust up over my chest, spread open and attached to some type of a bar overhead. Then, finally, my gag was removed. Suddenly, I felt a well-lubricated finger slide into my asshole. The finger was removed and traveled the length of my ass before it was slid back into the quivering sphincter. Over and over this was repeated. Then, I felt two fingers joining in the routine. I was grinding my ass into the fingers and moaning in ecstasy. After several minutes, I felt a large, thick rubber dildo rubbing the backs of my shaved thighs overhead. I realized what I should be expecting any moment.

As I expected, I felt the head of the rubber dildo poking at my asshole. Without warning, the dildo was shoved completely into my ass. I gasped for air as I screamed out. Suddenly, the gentle examination turned into a violent attack on my ass. The dildo was pulled out and plunged to its full hilt into my ass time after time. Faster and faster the assault continued. Finally, after what seemed like an eternity, the dildo was plunged into my ass one final time. As I lay there with my ass clinging to the dildo and as I tried to catch my breath, the door slammed shut. Quickly, the door opened again. I heard someone enter the room and step up on the small platform at the end of the examining table.

The dildo was slowly extracted from my ass. I felt the head of a large dick begin to enter me as I felt the weight of a man lowered onto my body. His large tool filled my ass as he began to pump rhythmically.

"Have you been keeping my friends entertained, boy?"

Instantly, I recognized the voice was Officer Bill's. "i've tried my best, Sir!"

"Well, now do your best to make Daddy happy!" With that, Officer Bill began to pump my ass more vigorously. As he spanked my smooth ass with his open hand, he began to yell: "Come on, boy! Give your ass to Daddy! Come on, fucker...give it up—work that ass and make your Daddy shoot his load! Take it boy...yeah! Work that tight little boybutt around Daddy's manmeat! Work it you little slut! Take my hot, creamy load...you know it's what you want!"

He was right...he knew how I liked it. He knew how rough and hard I wanted it. The more he yelled, the harder he spanked my reddening bottom and the deeper he pushed his throbbing tool into my widening asshole. He played with my erect nipples...squeezing, pulling, kneading and twisting. He yanked on my nuts and slapped my cock.

By now, Officer Bill was completely on top of me with my ass opened upwards towards the ceiling. From this position, he plunged his manhood down vertically... deep into my rectum until I was sure that I would pass out. I screamed out in total delight, squealing like the pig I had become at Officer Bill's hands.

I was reeling in ecstasy while the sweat was pouring off our bodies, causing us to slide against one another in perfect rhythm. His balls were pounding against my hard butt when I felt his entire body stiffen. His cock began to pulsate with violent spasms as I felt my ass being filled with his burning hot jism.

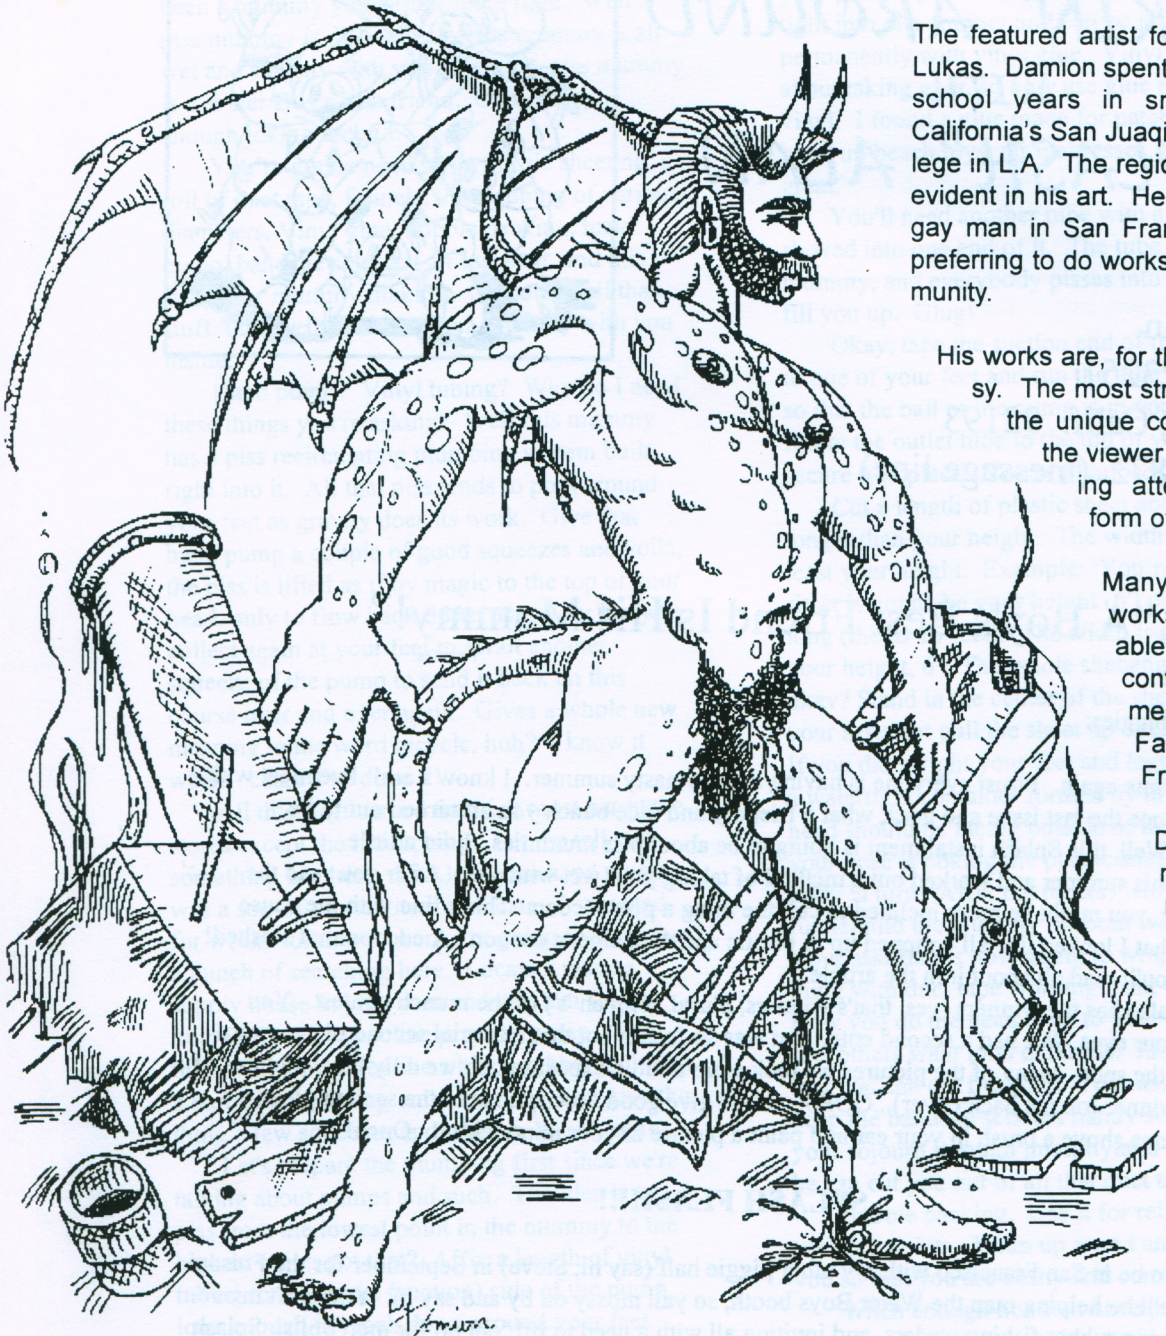
FEATURED ARTIST



The featured artist for this edition is Damion Lukas. Damion spent his elementary and high school years in small towns throughout California's San Juaqin Valley and went to college in L.A. The regional Spanish influence is evident in his art. He is now living as a single gay man in San Francisco, pursuing his art, preferring to do works in and for the gay community.

His works are, for the most part, total fantasy. The most striking feature of his art is the unique composition which invites the viewer to fantasize while focusing attention on the realistic form of his subject.

Many of Damion's original works and prints are available for sale, as are T-shirts containing his art and commemorating Folsom Street Fair and other San Francisco events.

Damion can also be commissioned to do original realistic and fantasy drawings. For further information, write to:

"A Boy's Best Friend Is His Mummy!"

King Tut

My fellow piggies:

It's Splash time again. I trust everyone is having a hot-n-nasty summer. I know I am! I've meet with a few members since the last issue and geez, what a friendly and nice bunch you all turned out to be. Thanks, guys. Well, this Splash installment is going to be about piss mummies. I did a little experimenting this summer and worked out a method of taking your wet with you. After you read the article, however, you might be more inclined to call the thing a piss cocoon. That's fine with me cause that's exactly what I looked like all wrapped up in plastic and duct tape, a cocoon. A cocoon that sloshed! Well enough, you'll read all about it in the article.

This issue also has the winners (yes, that's winners, plural, with an 's') of the raunch contest. You won't believe your eyes. We had a second entry that was so fuckin hot that a special second place award was created on the spot. Many of the pictures we took were double exposures, so we only have pictures of the first place winner (on the back cover)...OOPS! I will give good descriptions of the second place winner. I'm gonna shove a brush in your ear and paint a picture in your mind with it. Ouch!

SPLASH FLASH!!!

I'm going to be in San Francisco with my other piggie half (say hi, Steve) in September for the Folsom Street Fair. We'll be helping man the Water Boys booth, so yall mossy on by and say hi. You can't miss me. I'll be wearing rubber fishing waders, and inviting all with a need to fill 'em up for me. Splish Splash. Come on by the booth, take a load off your bladder, and make a piggie happy. You also won't want to miss the winning entries (and some rather interesting non winners) entered in the raunch contests either. It will all be there for your inspection. We have a motel close by the fair, so we'll be looking for other wet party piggies to play with too. Bring your best sleaze, don't shave, don't shower. OINK OINK!

The Piss Mummy Exposed

Yeah, you probably think you know all about mummy making. Maybe you've made or been a mummy yourself at some time. Well a piss mummy is different! A piss mummy is all wet and squishy with you inside. A piss mummy is a Water Boy's best friend. Okay, okay... enough joking around.

You're gonna need some plastic sheeting, a roll of duct tape, funnels, vinyl tubing of various diameters, Vinyl glue, bubble packing, hand pump, bandage scissors, an assistant, and this recipe for mummy making. Go collect all that stuff, then we'll build it into a mummy with you inside.

Hand pump? Vinyl tubing? Why do I need these things you're asking? Well this mummy has a piss recirculating plumbing system built right into it. All that piss tends to pool around your feet as gravity does its work. Give that hand pump a couple of good squeezes and voila, the piss is lifted as if by magic to the top of your head, only to flow back down over your body to collect again at your feet to await another squeeze of the pump to send it back on this course over and over again. Gives a whole new meaning to the word recycle, huh? I know it works 'cause I've done it!

All this stuff can be found at most hardware stores except the hand pump. Let me tell you something brothers, that Goddamn hand pump was a son-of-a-bitch item to locate. I searched for weeks for that fucker! I'm going to save you a bunch of searching here. Locate a marine supply house in your area and ask 'em for an outboard motor gasoline priming pump. The thing will look sorta like a black rubber ball with a barbed hose fitting on both ends. You give the thing a few squeezes and whamo, squirt, squirt.

Let's prepare the plumbing first since we're talking about pumps and such. The idea is to get piss from the lowest point in the mummy to the highest point, got that? Affix a length of vinyl tubing to the intake (suction) side of the pump long enough to reach down around your feet. Affix another length of tubing to the outlet side of the pump long enough to reach the top of your head. Test the whole thing out with water first to make sure the pump is installed in the right direction. You're gonna be a mighty unhappy mummy if you get it wrong and you're only pumping air bubbles through the piss pooling uselessly around your feet. Test it ,pig!

Vinyl tubing comes in all kinds of diameters so I'll leave it up to you to pick the size that fits your pump. Different diameters fit nice and tight into one another and can be joined together permanently with vinyl glue. Vinyl is touchy about taking glue, so only use glue made for vinyl. I found a glue made for patching vinyl blow up beach toys, air mattresses, etc. Worked great.

You'll need another tube with a funnel shoved into one end of it. The tube goes into the mummy, and everybody pisses into the funnel to fill you up. Glug!

Okay, tape the suction end of the pump tube to one of your feet and run the tube up your leg so that the ball of the pump is in your hand. Route the outlet tube to the top of your head and secure it in place. You're plumbed!

Cut a length of plastic sheet about 2½ times longer than your height. The width should be at least your height. Example: You're 6'0". Your sheet is gonna be your height (6') plus 6' plus 3' long (thetas 15 feet). The width is going to be your height, 6'. The whole shebang is 15' by 6' okay? Stand in the center of the sheet and have your assistant pull the sheet up over your body. If you did it right your feet and legs should be in a watertight container formed by the sheet. Your head should be facing outside of the plastic. If your nose is poking the plastic sheet, rotate your body ¼ turn. Affix the tube(s) with the filler funnel into the mummy at about waist height. Your assistant is now going to wrap the whole thing with duct tape working from the feet up. How you do the head is up to you. Some like to see, others want total darkness. Just make sure that you can get fresh air. Your assistant should keep the bandage scissors handy so that when your sojourn through mummyland is complete, he can cut you out of all that duct tape.

Bubble packing. Use it for relieving pressure points. Wrap up a wad and put it under you so that you are cushy and comfortable.

When enough hot men have pissed into your funnel and you feel the piss sloshing around your feet, give the hand pump a couple of good squeezes, and your in piss recycle heaven.

Send me pictures or stories about your mummies if you like. I loved being a piss mummy and so will you. See the back cover for mummy pictures.

Winner Numero Uno

Okay... this has it hands down. I've never seen anything quite like what this Water Boys piggie sent along. NEVER!!! Nobody has ever seen anything quite like this entry before.

Congagulations (spelled correctly) Water Boys member #601 Our winner is John, and he hails from Colorado. Member #601 just picked up a one year extension of his membership and a free 100 word personal ad. Go John! What I have here is a, well a, kinda black hockey puck sorta thingie, kinda. Hell, this damn thing is so unusual that even I don't really know what to call it. I thought I had the market cornered on weird raunch, but member #601 has stolen my crown. Read all about it below. His letter says it all.

Well Splash, here's my entry. Enjoy it, play with it, savor the aroma. You'll notice the aroma has "staying power" (it makes a good room odorizer). I really get turned on by it!

It's the result of 100% "processed" piss. What I do is piss into a jar, take it up on my roof and pour the piss into a sort of evaporation pan sitting in the sun in an assembly with a plastic "roof" over it to keep out the rain. After many gallons and several months of evaporation the piss gets concentrated into a thick, brown liquid, which has completely lost any of that "gaggy" ammonia smell. Then I strain the liquid to remove stray debris or insects (who have sacrificed themselves to my fetish, or have their own kamikaze human piss fetish!) and pour it into a container for future use. I liken my "processed" piss to a full-bodied stout beer (which I love!) versus pale, wimpy, (Republican) lite beer.

As with this entry, I've soaked several loin cloths, jock straps or briefs to make them stiff, smelly, and erotic, so that I can wear and enjoy them, especially (actually up to now exclusively) when I am doing a "solo", since I've always assumed it's a little extreme for "mainstreamers". However, if I'm not alone in the universe, and others are doing this, I'd sure like to find them and meet them! It's lonely being a minority of a minority! Cheers, and good sniffing!

John

PS. Please keep it for your collection.

PPS. I've also enclosed, for your edification, a small sample of what I would consider the "end product", a black, tar-like substance (which resulted accidentally when one of the containers was left for a long period not completely sealed). Perhaps a final stage would be, given sufficient heat and pressure, "piss diamonds."

Well... what more can I say? It does have staying power, and yes, it'll odorize a room right off. This whatchamacallit might be fun at a really raunchy pig piss party too. Thanks John for your really ORIGINAL and winning entry. Hope you find a kindred spirit out there. Splash.

And in Second place

This entry came in out of the blue, and it arrived a month too late for the contest to boot. But when I opened it up, wow!!! Steve and I have used this entry many times when we're feeling horny. Gets us both off every time. Too bad this entry has to be returned, but you can bet it'll get plenty more use before I'm forced to send it back. This entry is so hot that a second place winner was declared on the spot. This man hails from the New York area and his name is Adam Colt (a name that may be familiar to some of you reading this). He's Water Boys member #674. Steve and I have stuck this entry under our noses more than a few times since its arrival. I'm going to mourn when at last, (long last) I'm forced to send it back to Adam. You can bet it'll have many more of our "scummy contributions" in it before I send it back. Be patient, Adam, it's cumming, and cumming and...

Adam picks up a free 50-word ad in the next four issues of Waterboys for his hot entry. All you raunch boys out there come by the Water Boys booth at the Folsom Street Fair and check out how real raunch is done. The fair is in San Francisco on September 29th. You are cordially invited to assist me in sleazing it up real good before I send it back to him.

The Water Boys raunch contest is over for now, but response was so good that we may do it again in a few years. Now, read the following letter with your dick in your hand, pig. You'll blow your load.

Splash Alan:

I'm proud of my dirty, smelly, wet, pig manhood! I'm a true piss, stinky sock, dirty feet, puckered butthole top/bottom pig in fantasy and in fact. I'd like my name, mail code, and member number printed in the "Porkin' Around" article when my filthy scum jockstrap wins the contest. I want to meet as many slut pigs like myself as soon as possible. I want to live my life in and as a human urinal.

The enclosed jockstrap started its whore life when it was sold to me by a straight, hot, butch, angry Italian salesman at an Army/Navy store in downtown Brooklyn New York. He caught that hungry look in my eyes when he started to put the strap in a brown paper bag. He stopped himself midway and started walking to the back of the store. I followed like a stray street dog. He opened an old wooden door in the corner behind a stack of boxes. I saw the old toilet as he pulled down his zipper and ordered me into the smelly bathroom in a harsh whisper. I dropped to my knees as he locked the door. I rested my head up on the toilet seat and waited for my feeding. It came in bucketfulls! I slurped and drank every drop of his salty workman's piss as he humiliated me with his filthy mouth. "Drink my piss, cocksucking faggot!" I licked the toilet seat clean before taking his cheesy uncut cock down my scum throat. I cleaned the rank cheese and chewed on his nasty skin until he blew his load on my handsome face. The amused look on his cocky face made me crawl at his feet. He kicked off his dirty sneakers and I went to town smelling and chewing his stinky socks. I ate the socks off his feet, and got a mouthful of toe jam. His cum was still dripping off my mustache when I blew my load. I reached up and ripped the jockstrap from his hand. I wiped my scum into the strap, and buried my cum stained face into it. I was off and running.

This is a true story. I was the October 1995 Honcho Magazine leather coverman and centerfold. The photo spread has great shots of my perfect manly feet (I'm a total foot fetishist), and rosebud butthole (I'm a total manhole addict-rimming). I'm also a fetish video star. In my video 'Rimshots', you can see me drinking piss out of a rubber fireman's boot, sucking piss out of an asshole, and being pissed on by a group of piss addicts. In one scene featuring a hot young pig, I go to town eating his pussyboy asshole while the other guys in the cast piss on me. We spent five hours making the video. It was piss paradise!

This piss jockstrap took me a year to make ripe! It is use as my cum rag. This jerk-off drops a nasty load on it once a day! If it's dry and then gets wet, it gets gummy from the encrusted scum. I use it to wipe the Vaseline off my butthole after I get fucked, and I love to take it up the ass.

My numbers willingly drop their loads in the strap unless I manage to take their load in my mouth, in which case I just spit it into the pouch. I have worn this jockstrap to orgies where five or more slut pigs have had me on the floor pissing and blowing their loads on me. I have wiped off pints of cum from my face onto this prize strap. The jockstrap has covered my whole face while a circle of water boys treated me like the toilet that I am. The strap has been sitting in a jar of my hot man piss for the last three days. It stinks! And I could suck it dry. I'm thirsty now.

I'm hungry for a man's body. I'm hungry to drink his body, eat his feet, and suck his butthole! This toilet needs to kneel in front of a real man and suck his juices and sniff his odors!

Well Adam, you're gonna get a deluge of mail over this, you know. Think you can keep up?

Oh, lest I forget. Adam sent a few photos along for reprinting in this edition. He sports a really nice uncut dick with lots of delectable foreskin. OINK!!!

Final Dribbles

To everyone who entered the raunch contest but wasn't mentioned here, I want to thank you for your entries. Your stuff was really great.

Water Boys is looking for a secluded place to have a couple of good old fashioned piss parties. If you have such a place or know of such a place, please write me with the info.

Okay, about that wraps it up for this issue. Everyone out there be your very pig best.

VIDEO REVIEW

THE EB-VIDEO COLLECTION, FROM EB-VIDEO, POSTFACH 1412, 55222 ALZEY, GERMANY

Five videos comprise this collection, all of them jam packed with hot, pissing uncut cocks . The videos showcase "piss boy Alexander," a lanky, smooth, 23-year-old major piss pig. Though I tend to prefer older, dark, hairy men, Alexander was an unexpected turn-on, probably because I rarely meet men his age who are in touch with their pig nature, totally unapologetic, and able to approach scene after scene with absolute fervor and wild abandon.

The technical quality of all the videos in this collection is quite excellent. Broadcast-standard cameras were used in every film, so the images are very clear. The lighting and composition are almost flawless, and the transitions between scenes are logical and clean.

Piss Boy Alexander, the first movie in the series, is 150 minutes long and contains 18 solo episodes. Alex pisses everywhere: indoors and out, on himself, in a large transparent green glass bowl, in his jeans, down his hungry throat...you name it. This innocent looking boy genuinely loves to produce, drink and writhe in his own piss and cum. His spontaneity and excitement and the lack of scripting are apparent and work much to advantage.

Piss-Treff (Piss-Meeting) stars Alexander, Marco, Kai and Florian, all of them young, and eager, three of them uncut. One of the boys is working in a porn bookstore when another wanders in and they start groping, sucking and pissing. Luckily, they forgot to post the "closed for business" sign in the window, because two more studly boys enter the store and add their piss and cum loads to the party. The pissing and fucking is nonstop and genuine, not professionally acted.

Another episode features a plumber, who comes to fix a kitchen pipe. As he lays on his back under the kitchen sink to inspect the pipes, the camera ogles his crotch from the perspective of the thirsty pisspig homeowner, and the viewer automatically projects himself into the role of the lascivious and scheming homeowner. The homeowner goes to the bathroom to take a leak, which is patently unnecessary, because he winds up drinking most of the load himself. In any event, the plumber peeps through the keyhole while Johann Homeowner showers himself with and drinks a major load of piss. Eventually, the two frenziedly fuck and piss, and the plumber even gets paid. The film runs 63 minutes.

Rasur und Pissboys (Shave- and piss-boys) stars Alex, Kai, Claudio and Robert and is one hour long. It is full of steamy combination genital shaving/watersports scenes. Nothing beats washing the shaving cream off with a nice, healthy, long, heavy piss stream! The movie also contains lots of shaving-only and watersports-only scenes and a nice complement of fucking and piss drinking as well.

Fick und Piss Spiele (Fuck and Piss Games) runs for 70 minutes and showcases seven young studs in four episodes, most of which take place in and around an old stone castle (yes, it has a dungeon!). In one scene, a boy is screwed with a thick, long spadestick on an old German half-timbered loft. The studfucker shows no mercy, fucking the boy relentlessly with this device. Then the workers start with the wet stuff. In another scene, two studs discover an ancient vault under the tower, fuck their guts out and end up pissing all over each other, joined by another couple that wants to find out more.

Skin-Maker contains 5 skinheads and 2 other men, and runs 102 minutes. Two skinheads meet in a military harbor, one in jeans and one in fatigues. They piss on, trash and use one another. Meanwhile, another skin observes two boys having piss sex in a warehouse. He joins the other two. One boy gets his head shaved, another gets fucked. Piss flies everywhere. Great outdoor action shots!

These movies are pricey...anywhere from 99 to 149DM, plus 15DM postage. Considering the realism, technical quality, and the fact that the new U.S. anti-pornography laws have driven almost every American piss film distributor out of business, these films represent the best of what is on the current market.

Be aware that it is a violation of U.S. law to import piss videos; these films are subject to seizure by U.S. customs. EB Video clearly states in their brochure that the orderer bears the risk of loss. Please note that the recipient has to have ordered these videos in order to be in violation of the law, and we all get unsolicited junk mail. ♦

As he withdrew his withering cock from my worn out ass, I panted, "Thank you, Daddy. Thank you, you know what I need and want.

But, as if he could read my mind, he knew I really wanted more. As he showered me with a musky, pungent stream of hot piss, Officer Bill whispered, "You are one hot little piece of ass, you little pig! I'm glad I found you out at the park—who would've thought you are the slut-whore that you are!"

As he said those words, a feeling of satisfaction swept over me. But, in the quiet of the moment, I suddenly realized that Officer Bill and I weren't alone...his friends had been silently watching the whole event! As if he were aware of my sudden realization, Officer Bill said, "Well, boys...you see how he likes it. He's yours to enjoy!" With that, the door to the room slammed shut.

Within seconds, my entire body was ravaged by hands and dicks and asses. I was at the mercy of these strangers who had just witnessed my unbounded behavior with Officer Bill. Strangers' dicks were thrust down my throat...muscular asses perched on my face...my ass was gang-banged until it was mushy and dripping with loads of cum. I was drenched in steaming piss and sweat. My butt stang from their spankings; my tits were numb and raw from their workout.

When the strangers were finished, I collapsed into exhaustion...satisfied, happy and fulfilled. I had never experienced such a gratifying experience! As I was about to drift off into sleep, I heard the door to the room open once again.

Gently, a large hand wiped the sweat from my forehead, and I felt familiar lips press against my brow. Officer Bill picked me up into his large arms and held me close to his huge chest. "You've made Daddy very proud and happy tonight, boy.

I started to speak, but he pressed his finger over my lips. "No, don't say a word." He carried me into the next room and set me down into a bathtub filled with warm water and suds. He took off my blindfold which had been covering my eyes for hours. Quietly, he sponged my weary body and massaged my tired muscles as he smiled at me. Finally, he lifted me out of the bathwater and dried my body off with a large, soft towel. He helped me get dressed and then picked me up in his arms again. I snuggled into his familiar chest as he carried me to my car, which was still parked in the garage. Placing my limp body in the passenger seat, Officer Bill drove us to my home.

As I curled up against him in my bed, he wrapped his massive arms around my exhausted frame. As I drifted off to sleep, I realized that Officer Bill had carefully planned the evening as a culmination to the many fantasies he and I had shared with each other. As if he could read my thoughts, he whispered in my ear: "Boy, with our imaginations; my friends and your energy, there isn't a single dream we can't make come true. We've only scratched the surface! Sleep well.

As they were pulling on the door, the plane started to fall apart, with a large hole opening next to the door.

"Hold onto me, kid," Marco yelled to Paul. Paul jumped on Marco, wrapping his arms around Marco's neck and his legs around Marco's waist. Just then the plane gave a horrendous squeal and made the opening bigger. With the boy clamped onto him, Marco jumped out into the darkness.

The plane soon blew apart, sending debris flying everywhere.

"Oh shit! Part of the wing is coming at us," Marco yelled.

Coming Christmas 1996, Vengeance is Mine, the book.

...DARE use the toilet."

I began to piss up onto my chest some more, then let the spray splash onto the floor, and this was getting Bill hard AGAIN, so I began to make an even bigger mess, splashing the piss onto his chest, in his hair and face, and onto the sofa.

This made him crazy and he still had more piss!! He started to join me in creating the hottest piss mess I've ever seen. The tile around the room had piss everywhere! We then started jerking off with each other's piss and I came buckets up onto Bill's chest, and with two hands he wiped up the cum, and put one hand in his mouth, the other on his cock, and jerked himself to a second climax! Again he lay down in the piss mess on the sofa, and I sat in the piss puddle on the floor. We didn't say anything for a while, just watched the end of the movie. Then Bill said, "Want another beer?" and he smiled. What an incredible night! (Wish it were real!!!) --Whaddya think, guys? Does #669 need a good paddling or what? Sure had ME going! --Ed.

WATERSPORTS IS MORE THAN JUST SLEAZE!
Watersports can be very spiritual when the right people find one another. I am seeking a dedicated small group of men to explore the deeper physical and spiritual sides of watersports and raunch (smelly armpits etc., no scat). I'm not all hung up on looks, race, or other externals. I value what you are on the inside much more. I'm 44, 185#, short buzz haircut, trim beard, non-smoker, no addictions to drugs or alcohol, HIV+, working, stable, healthy. You pretty much already know what I'm about through my articles titled "Porkin' Around With Splash Alan" in Waterboys. If you're stable, your head is together, and you would like a loving, caring encounter with all the sleaze included, contact me. P.O. Box 23251 San Diego, Calif. 92193 or 619-285-0872 (message only, leave name and number). Planning a visit to San Diego soon? Drop me a note. Who knows what it will lead to. I am, Splash Alan. 0021

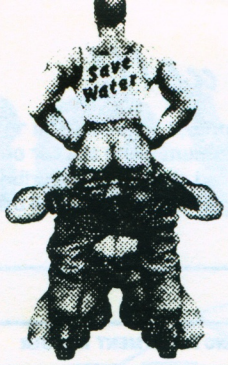
Water Boys

1043 University Avenue, #202
San Diego, CA 92103-3392



Dear Friend:

Water Boys*™ is an active, private, worldwide membership network for men who love water sports and pig sex. Our purpose is to provide a safe, down 'n dirty, stimulating forum in which watersports enthusiasts are encouraged to explore their own personal interests, fantasies and fetishes, and to share them with other like-minded men. Water Boys™ provides you with opportunities to meet other hot men, learn about and participate in watersports and pig sex, socialize and play. Although our emphasis is on watersports, our network is for all types of men and fetishes.

Water Boys*™ publishes a LARGE (typically fifty to sixty 8½" x 11" pages), full-featured quarterly magazine which includes hundreds of raunchy personal ads that get proven results, sizzling photos, world-class fiction, erotic art, Pig Sty™ (true stories), movie reviews, Splash Alan™ (education), news clips, Dear Piggy™ (advice), a calendar of local, regional and national events, whore-o-scopes™, and ads for stimulating, specialized products and services. Water Boys™ hosts beer busts, play parties and weekend retreats, and publishes accounts and photos of these events in our magazine. Our computer BBS (members receive a 1-month free trial) lets you cruise and chat, keep abreast of events and pig news, upload personal pictures, download over 2,000 pictures of hot men, E-mail via the Internet, and more. We also sponsor a hot weekly piss chat forum on America Online.®

Our computer files are encrypted and protected against unauthorized access. Your personal ad will remain anonymous unless you specify otherwise. Our mailing list is 100% CONFIDENTIAL, and your name will never be sold, rented or lent to anyone, for any reason.

JOIN Water Boys!!!

Membership has its privileges: a one-year subscription to the Water Boys™ magazine and a free, 8-line personal classified ad for one year (applies to personal ads only; no commercial or promotional advertising for financial gain). Free publication of your personal photo. A free, confidential, private mail box. Free mail forwarding to other members. You may change your personal ad up to three times per year. As a Water Boys™ member, you will also be offered special discounts by our advertisers and special member pricing at our social and play events.

Add it up: A one year Water Boys™ membership costs $35. (A non-member's personal ad, running for one year, would cost $120.) No box fee. No mail forwarding fees. Four free ad changes. Free publication of your personal photo. Discounts at social and play events. So...even if you never change your ad or never respond to a personal ad, you're saving $120 by joining Water Boys. Do it! We guarantee you'll be glad you did.

Just use the grid order form on the back of this page (Be sure to sign on the "signature" line). Questions? Feel free to call us at (619) 494-7867 or E-mail MUSLSNDICK@AOL.COM. We look forward to having you as a valued member of our network.

Sincerely,

Rainer
